

is This The Allusive Albert Mac Meda ?

In a follow up to our Jan. 21 , Article " Authorities Looking For Albert Mac Meda " The TRIBUNE has obtained a photo supposedly taken at a Singapore Jail of a Man that excaped in 1960 . The only information is the man in photo was a " Madman " Who talked like a " Old Time Pirate " and keep yelling " More Rum & Mee Daw ! " while Laughing Insanely . This fits the descption we have from Police of the allusive ALBERT MAC MEDA .

Authorities Looking For " Albert Mac Meda "

Authorities Are Looking for a Man that have may lived in the Coastal town of La Jolla , but now believe he Fishing off the Coast of Costa Rica . Police spokesman said the Man goes by the name MAC MEDA or Albert Mac Meda .

Mr. Meda is wanted for Questioning in his involvement in the Destruction of a Bank in 1962 . It is thought that Mac Meda and his mob used a World War 2 surplus Tank (later found in a Swimming Pool) to knock down the walls of the Bank . The spokesman would not identify the Bank .

The police said they are also looking into a report that Meda may have " Broke " a Jet Airliner . Mr. . Meda has a Gang that goes by the name " the MAC MEDA Destruction Company " . The police say the FBI is also Investigating the group as the possible crazies who heavily damaged a Court House and Jr. High School .

The group is thought to be comprised of heavy Beer Drinking " Beach types " , but warn that there is a rumor that some members are now using Benzedrine Pills and drink a lot of Gin , The group is considered very Dangerous and may be Armed with " Big Sledge Hammers " . A informant claims that there Motto is " What MAC MEDA broke, stays broken for ever ! " .

A recent search for a rumored " hid out " in the Local Mountains by local Sheriffs was called off after several officers failed to return and are missing . A " avalanche " was reported in area .

Mr. Mac Meda is said to be a Powerful man that " can Smash down a house with his hands " . Reportedly in 1961 he formed a Group of " Destroying Fools " in to the MAC MEDA Destruction Company . If you have any information as to there whereabouts please call Police .

A Evening Tribune Reporter , Robert Zimmerman recently interviewed suspected Medaman , Jack MacPherson a " Doctor of Letters " at a Bar in La Jolla . After buying Mr. MacPherson $ 28 worth of Beer our Reporter only found out that Meda was " a Gorilla ? " and that Mr. MacPherson drank a Lot of Beer !